Ezekiel Jewel DeVinny was born on March 14, 1837 in Blairsville, Pennsylvannia. He married Frances Elizabeth Butterbaugh on March 5, 1863 in Eastun, Indiana County, Pennsylvannia. They were married in Lizzie's father's home while Ezekiel was on a ten-day furlough from the army. They had six children: Harry M. (born December 3, 1865), Belila Jane ("Jennie," born March 15, 1868, died in 1905), Mary E. ("Molly," born March 29, 1871), George P., born December 30, 1875, died in 1960), Alexander (born February 28, 1879 or '80), and Arta Ora (born March 20, 1888). He died on November 5, 1915 and was buried in Gottenburg, Nebraska. He was a carriage maker. He was a blacksmith by trade. he was 5'11" tall. He had blue eyes, light hair, and a fair complexion. His mother's maiden name was Drake.

He enlisted in the Union Army during the Civil War from July 10, 1861 to June 13, 1864. He was sick from August 1862 to September 20, 1862. He applied for a disability pension in 1889, claiming that he had strained himself after the battle of Bull Run in August 1862, causing him to suffer from piles and heart disease. His application was denied. He reapplied and was granted a pension of $12 a month in 1890. It was later increased to $15 a month and again to $30 a month. After the war ended he lived in Pennsylvannia until 1884. He moved to Nebraska and lived there until 1891. Then he lived in Kansas and Indiana Territory for nine months, in Nebraska for seven years, in Colorado for one year, and in Nebraska after that until his death. From 1930 onwards Ezekiel and Lizzie lived in the Soldiers and Sailors Home in Burkett, Nebraska.

He was 81 years of age. Ray was born January 17, 1927 in Grand Junction to Ray Henry and Hazel A. Devinney Schiesswohl. He graduated from Grand Junction High School. Ray graduated from Mesa College in Grand Junction with an Associate of Science degree and from the University of Colorado at Boulder with a Bachelor of Science and Business Degree. Ray enlisted in the U. S. Navy and served in WWII. He was discharged August 22, 1946. On August 29, 1948 Ray was married to Mary Jean Yarnell at the First Presbyterian Church in Grand Junction. Mary Jean died March 25, 2007. Survivors include his sons and daughter-in-law, Steven and Kim Schiesswohl of Boulder, CO and Reverend Scott Schiesswohl of Evergreen, CO; daughter and son-in-law, Debra and David Bailey of Grand Junction, CO; and six grandchildren, Leslie, Kristen, Emily, Stephanie, Timothy and Jacob. An infant brother, Gary Glen preceded him in death. Ray returned to Grand Junction after completing a year of his Masters in Business Administration at the University of Colorado, to take over Schiesswohl Oil Company. He was a distributor for the Western Slope and built and ran seven Union 76 gas stations. In 1973, changing business opportunities lead him to a career as a Realtor and Appraiser. He and his wife, Jean opened Schiesswohl Realty in 1978 and was active in this career until his retirement. Ray enjoyed watching his grandchildren and children in sports. He was a Boy Scout leader, and an active band parent and went on numerous trips with his children as a sponsor and chaperone. He was a certified scuba diver (1978) and liked skiing, hunting and fishing. Ray was a fourth generation Western Coloradoan. The state, it's mountains and deserts meant a lot to him. He especially loved spending time with his family in the outdoors. He and Jean enjoyed their second home in Ouray, Colorado from 1998 until this summer, when he could no longer travel. Ray was a member of the First Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) until December 2007 when he transferred his membership to the First United Methodist Church. He was a member of the Masonic Lodge, Shriners, Junior Chamber of Commerce, and was a lifetime member of the Elks and Lions Clubs. A memorial service will be held on Saturday, February 9, 2008 at 10:00 a.m. in the First United Methodist Church with Reverend Blaine Scott officiating. Burial will follow at Orchard Mesa Cemetery in Grand Junction. Memorial contributions may be made to Hospice & Palliative Care of Western Colorado at P. O. Box 60307, Grand Junction, CO 81506. Arrangements are under the caring direction of Callahan-Edfast Mortuary.

Claude W. Smith

A prominent editor and publisher at Elwood, Nebraska, is Claude W. Smith, a lifetime resident of this state. He was born at Grant, Nebraska, December 1, 1889, the son of Charles F. and Jennie (DeVinny) Smith. His father, who was also an editor and publisher, was born at Charles City, Iowa, July 2, 1864, and died at Elwood, December 20, 1915; he served as president of the Madrid Exchange Bank and was postmaster at Elwood. His mother was born in Indiana County, Pennsylvania, March 18, 1868, and died at Elwood, in 1906.

Mr. Smith attended the Elwood grade and high school and entered the newspaper field with the Progress Printing Company at Holdrege, Nebraska. He remained there three years before locating permanently at Elwood in 1915. He has also been mechanical foreman of various newspapers, and is now editor and publisher of the Bellwood Bulletin.

On September 8, 1921, he was married at Elwood to Ellen Umberger who was born at New Cumberland, Pennsylvania, March 16, 1891. Mr. Smith was awarded first place by the Nebraska Press Association for the best newspaper published in Nebraska towns of less than 1000 population, in 1926. He is president of the Elwood Community Club, past president of the Southwest Nebraska Press Association, and is a member of the Nebraska Press Association.

He holds membership in the following Masonic bodies: past master of Elwood Lodge, Number 167, Valley Scottish
